

Naushad Alam (Trade: Plumbing):

Naushad Alam is an enthusiastic boy of around 31 years and studies up to Class X but could not complete the secondary education due to financial problem. He hails from a large family of 8 members. His father is a wage earner whose income is around Rs. 5500/- per month which could not suffice the family expenditure. Mr Naushad Alam was associated with GRBBADS as a volunteer and on hearing about the training he expressed his intention to join the trade named Plumbing. In fact, he was aware about the shortfall of Plumbers in the area.

Therefore, he decided to join the training program on this trade of 6 months duration started from February, 2012 and successfully completed the training. Initially he was working with a reputed Sanitary & Plumbing Contractor of the area and was earning around Rs. 3000/- P.M. comfortably.

Now Naushad is having his own entity and working as a Plumbing Contractor. His Firm is taking contracts of total Plumbing Job of the Flats constructed by various Developers in different areas. 4 to 5 youths are working with Naushad who have also found an avenue for earning.

Besides, Naushad is now working as Faculty for the Plumbing courses organized by GRBBADS. Recently he was assigned with the job of faculty for a training at Presidency Correctional Home successfully sponsored by West Bengal Swarojgar Corporation Limited jointly with Directorate of Correctional Services, Govt. of West Bengal. Mr Naushad is now earning around Rs. 20000/- after paying all the debts.
