Md. Faiz Imam (Trade Electrician & Home Appliances)

Basically, Faiz Imam was a resident of Bihar but migrated to West Bengal in the year 1992. He is the only brother among 6 sisters with his parents. But his father died and since he is the only brother, he is to take total responsibility of his family. His father had a small shop of selling electrical equipment's. Faiz take over the responsibility of the shop but since he was unaware regarding the technical knowhow of electrical equipment's, he could not make any progress of the shop rather the financial position started deteriorating. At that time, he heard about the training on Electrician trade organized by GRBBADS. In fact, the Field Worker of GRBBADS disseminated the information. He applied for joining the trade and since he is already having a shop, no difficulty was there in his selection. He joined the course which started from February, 2012 and continued up to July, 2012 and learned with utmost interest and intention.

He has now established his own Electrical Shop in the name of Faiz Electric at Metiabruz area. Initially he took a loan of Rs. 45000/- from West Bengal Minorities Development and Finance Corporation for the purpose and he is regularly paying the EMI fixed by the Department. Faiz electric is now having a roaring business. It is taking contracts of electrical wirings in the Flats and also selling electrical equipment's. He has engaged 4 other workers who are earning Rs. 4000/- to Rs. 5000/- per month. After paying all the expenses Faiz net earnings is now around Rs. 20000/-

He arranged the marriage of his only younger sister. All the sisters and Faiz,s own family is now quite happy. Faiz has purchase a Flat of his own where he is staying with family

GRBBADS treat this an outstanding achievement for which all credit goes to FVTRS, Bangalore.
